1. These are religious leaders, why do you think they feel so threatened by Peter and John?
2. What kind of challenges have you faced from living out your Christian faith?
3. Thinking honestly, is Jesus the Cornerstone of your life, the Capstone, or another brick in the wall?
4. In Acts 4:19, 20 is the phrase, "Which is right in God's eyes: to listen to you, or to him?" This is a good rule for life, however, has it been abused or misused? If so how do you respond to those who misuse it?
5. How do we respond individually and as a church when threatened to be silent about the truth of Scripture? Are we threatened in any way to be silent at this time? If so how?
