Sermon Questions

March 3, 2024

1. We are all thankful for the forgiveness we receive, why is it so hard to forgive others?
2. What about the saying, “do it and we will ask for forgiveness later”? Is that a wise saying in the eyes of Scripture? Why or why not?
3. Matthew 6:12, 14, 15, and Matthew 18:21-35 explain that the forgiving of others is linked to us receiving forgiveness from God. How does that work? Is this similar to how Paul says we are saved by grace and James says faith without works is dead?
4. How do you deal with the unrepentant person? How do you forgive them?
5. How is forgiveness freeing for the person doing the forgiving, as well as an example of the fruit of the spirit?
6. How does our prayer life tie into our understanding and ability to forgive?
